

Continuing Education Biographical Data Form

Name: Betty Brackenridge

Professional Credential(s): MS, RD, CDE

Preferred Address: 2601 West Luce Drive

City/State/Zip: Phoenix, AZ 85086

Work Telephone: 602-315-0834

Fax: None

Home Telephone: 623-516-0903

Email: LearningRx@aol.com

EMPLOYMENT/POSITIONS –

Current: Principal and Director of Professional Education, Diabetes Management and Training Centers, Phoenix, Arizona. Design outcomes-oriented diabetes programs, materials and services for institutional clients and third party payers. Train health professionals in current strategies of diabetes management.

Past: Betty is a Diabetes Educator with over 25 years experience. She has worked with both pediatric and adult populations in individual and group education settings as well as in private practice..

EDUCATION – Basic preparation through highest degree held:

Degree Obtained	Institution	Area of Study	Year Degree Awarded
1. MS	Arizona State University Tempe, Arizona	Major: Human Nutrition Minor: Counseling	1981
2. BS	California State Polytechnic San Luis Obispo, California	Education	1968

Briefly describe your professional experience or area of expertise (including publications), which contribute to your qualifications for involvement in this activity being given credit.

Ms. Brackenridge is a diabetes educator with over 25 years' experience, Past President of the American Association of Diabetes Educators and a past member of the Center for Disease Control's Technical Advisory Committee on Diabetes. She has authored over 100 publications on diabetes, including books, journal and magazine articles, textbook chapters, and patient education materials. She has spoken throughout the world to both professional and lay audiences on all aspects of diabetes self-management and diabetes education.

Betty is a Certified Diabetes Educator and a long-time member of both the American Association of Diabetes Educators and of the American Diabetes Association.